

Over dit boek

Dit is een digitale kopie van een boek dat al generaties lang op bibliotheekplanken heeft gestaan, maar nu zorgvuldig is gescand door Google. Dat doen we omdat we alle boeken ter wereld online beschikbaar willen maken.

Dit boek is zo oud dat het auteursrecht erop is verlopen, zodat het boek nu deel uitmaakt van het publieke domein. Een boek dat tot het publieke domein behoort, is een boek dat nooit onder het auteursrecht is gevallen, of waarvan de wettelijke auteursrechttermijn is verlopen. Het kan per land verschillen of een boek tot het publieke domein behoort. Boeken in het publieke domein zijn een stem uit het verleden. Ze vormen een bron van geschiedenis, cultuur en kennis die anders moeilijk te verkrijgen zou zijn.

Aantekeningen, opmerkingen en andere kanttekeningen die in het origineel stonden, worden weergegeven in dit bestand, als herinnering aan de lange reis die het boek heeft gemaakt van uitgever naar bibliotheek, en uiteindelijk naar u.

Richtlijnen voor gebruik

Google werkt samen met bibliotheken om materiaal uit het publieke domein te digitaliseren, zodat het voor iedereen beschikbaar wordt. Boeken uit het publieke domein behoren toe aan het publiek; wij bewaren ze alleen. Dit is echter een kostbaar proces. Om deze dienst te kunnen blijven leveren, hebben we maatregelen genomen om misbruik door commerciële partijen te voorkomen, zoals het plaatsen van technische beperkingen op automatisch zoeken.

Verder vragen we u het volgende:

- + Gebruik de bestanden alleen voor niet-commerciële doeleinden We hebben Zoeken naar boeken met Google ontworpen voor gebruik door individuen. We vragen u deze bestanden alleen te gebruiken voor persoonlijke en niet-commerciële doeleinden.

Als u onderzoek doet naar computervertalingen, optische tekenherkenning of andere wetenschapsgebieden waarbij u toegang nodig heeft tot grote hoeveelheden tekst, kunt u contact met ons opnemen. We raden u aan hiervoor materiaal uit het publieke domein te gebruiken, en kunnen u misschien hiermee van dienst zijn.
- + Laat de eigendomsverklaring staan Het "watermerk" van Google dat u onder aan elk bestand ziet, dient om mensen informatie over het project te geven, en ze te helpen extra materiaal te vinden met Zoeken naar boeken met Google. Verwijder dit watermerk niet.
- + Houd u aan de wet Wat u ook doet, houd er rekening mee dat u er zelf verantwoordelijk voor bent dat alles wat u doet legaal is. U kunt er niet van uitgaan dat wanneer een werk beschikbaar lijkt te zijn voor het publieke domein in de Verenigde Staten, het ook publiek domein is voor gebruikers in andere landen. Of er nog auteursrecht op een boek rust, verschilt per land. We kunnen u niet vertellen wat u in uw geval met een bepaald boek mag doen. Neem niet zomaar aan dat u een boek overal ter wereld op allerlei manieren kunt gebruiken, wanneer het eenmaal in Zoeken naar boeken met Google staat. De wettelijke aansprakelijkheid voor auteursrechten is behoorlijk streng.

REFACE. p

COPIES of a few of these Hymns have already appeared in periodical publications, and in fome recent collections. I have observed one or two of them attributed to perfons who certainly had no concern in them, but as transcribers. All that have been at different times parted with in manufcript are included in the prefent volume; and (if the information were of any great importance) the Public may be affured, that the whole number were composed by two perfons only. The original defign would not admit of any other affociation. A defire of promoting the faith and comfort of fincere Chriftians, though the principal, was not the only motive to this undertaking. It was likewife intended as a monument, to perpetuate the remembrance of an intimate and endeared friendship. With this pleasing view, I entered upon my part, which would have been fmaller than it is, and the book would have appeared much fooner, and in a very different form, if the wife though mysterious providence of God, had not feen fit to crofs my wilhes. We had not proceeded far upon our propofed plan, before my dear friend was prevented, by a long and affecting indifpolition, from affording me any farther affistance. My grief and dilappointment were great; I hung my harp upon the willows, and for fome time thought myself determined to proceed no farther without him. Yet my mind was afterwards led to refume the fervice. My progrefs in it, amidst a variety of other engagements, has been flow; yet, in a course of years, the Hymns amounted ·A 2

to a confiderable number: And my deference to the judgment and defires of others, has at length overcome the reluctance I long felt to fee them in print, while I had fo few of my friend's Hymns to infert in the collection. Though it is possible a good judge of composition might be able to diftinguith those which are his, I have thought it proper to preclude a misapplication, by prefixing the letter C to each of them. For the rest I must be responsible.

There is a flyle and manner fuited to the compolition of hymns, which may be more fuccelsfully, or at least more easily attained by a versifier, than by a poet. They fhould be Hymns, not Odes, if defigned for public worship, and for the use of plain people. Perspicuity, fimplicity, and ease, should be chiefly attended to; and the imagery and colouring of poetry, if admitted at all, should be indulged very sparingly, and with great judgment. The late Dr. Watts, many of whole hymns are admirable patterns in this fpecies of writing, might, as a poet, have a right to fay, That it cost him fome labour to restrain his fire, and to accommodate himfelf to the capacities of common readers. But it would not become me to make fuch a declaration. It behoved me to do my beft. But though I would not offend readers of tafte by a wilful coarfenefs and negligence, 1 do not write professedly for them. If the Lord, whom I ferve, has been pleafed to fayour me with that mediocrity of talent, which may qualify me for ufefulnefs to the weak and the poor of his flock, without quite difgufting perfons of fuperior difcernment, I have reason to be fatisfied.

As the workings of the heart of man, and of the Spirit of God, are in general the fame in all who are the fubjects of grace, I hope most of these hymns, hymns, being the fruit and expression of my ownexperience, will coincide with the views of real Christians of all denominations. But I cannot expect that every fentiment I have advanced will be univerfally approved. However, I am not confcious of having written a fingle line with an intention either to flatter or to offend any party or perfon upon earth. I have fimply declared my own views and feelings, as I might have done if I had composed hymns in fome of the newly difcovered islands in the South fea, where no perfon had any knowledge of the name of Jefus, but my-I am a friend of peace; and being deeply felf. convinced that no one can profitably understand the great truths and doctrines of the gofpel, any farther than he is taught of God, I have not a wifh to obtrude my own tenets upon others in a way of controverfy : yet I do not think myfelf bound to conceal them. Many gracious perfons, (for many fuch I am perfuaded there are), who differ from me, more or lefs, in those points which are called Calvinistic, appeared defirous that the Calvinists should, for their sakes, studiously avoid every expression which they cannot approve. Yet few of them, I believe, impose a like restraint. upon themfelves, but think the importance of what they deem to be truth juffifies them in fpeaking their fentiments plainly and strongly. May I not plead for an equal liberty? The views I have received of the doctrines of grace are effential to my peace; I could not live comfortably a day or an hour without them. I likewife believe, yea, fo far as my poor attainments warrant me to speak, I know them to be friendly to holines, and to have a direct influence in producing and maintaining a gospel-conversation; and therefore I must not be ashamed of them.

The

The Hymns are diffributed into three Books: In the first I have classed those which are formed upon felect passages of fcripture, and placed them in the order of the Books of the Old and New Teftament. The fecond contains occafional Hymns, fuited to particular feafons, or fuggefted by particular events or fubjects. The third book is miscellaneous, comprifing a variety of fubjects relative to a life of faith in the Son of God, which have no express reference either to a fingle text of fcripture, or to any determinate feafon or incident. Thefe are farther fubdivided into diffinct heads. This arrangement is not fo accurate but that feveral of the hymns might have been differently difpofed. Some attention to method may be found convenient, though a logical exactness was hardly practicable. As fome fubjects in the feveral books are nearly co-incident, I have, under the divisions in the third Book, pointed out those which are fimilar in the two former. And I have likewife here and there, in the first and fecond, made a reference to hymns of a like import in the third.

This publication, which, with my humble prayer to the Lord for his bleffing upon it, I offer to the fervice and acceptance of all who love the Lord Jefus Chrift in fincerity, of every name and in every place, into whofe hands it may come; I more particular dedicate to my dear friends, in the parifh and neighbourhood of Olney, for whofe ufe the hymns were originally compofed; as a teftimony of the fincere love I bear them, and as a token of my gratitude to the Lord, and ' to them, for the comfort and fatisfaction with which the difcharge of my miniftry among them has been attended.

The hour is approaching, and, at my time of life, cannot be very diftant, when my heart, my pen, and my tongue, will no longer be able to move in their fervice. But I truft while my heart heart continues to beat, it will feel a warm defire for the profperity of their fouls; and while my hand can write, and my tongue fpeak, it will be the bufinels and the pleafure of my life, to aim at promoting their growth and eftablifhment in the grace of our God and Saviour. To this precious grace I commend them, and earneftly intreat them, and all who love his name, to five mightily with their prayers to God for me, that I may be preferved faithful to the end, and enabled at laft to finith my courfe with joy.

I. Adam. Chap. iii.

 ON man, in his own image made, How much did God beftow? The whole creation homage paid, And own'd him Lord below!
 He dwelt in Eden's garden, ftor'd With fweets for ev'ry fenfe; And there, with his defcending Lord, He walk'd in confidence.
 But, oh! by fin how quickly chang'd! His honour forfeited, His heart from God and truth eftrang'd; His confcience fill'd with dread!
 Now from his Maker's voice he flees, Which was before his joy; And thinks to hide, amidft the trees,

From an all-feeing eye.

5 Compell'd to anfwer to his name, With flubbornnefs and pride,

He caft on God himfelf the blame; Nor once for mercy cry'd.

6 But grace, unafk'd, his heart fubdu'd, And all his guilt forgave;
By faith the promis'd feed he view'd, And felt his pow'r to fave.

7 Thus we ourfelves would justify, Tho' we the law transgress; Like him, unable to deny,

Unwilling to confess.

8 But when by faith the finner fees

 A pardon bought with blood;
 Then he forfakes his foolifh pleas,
 And gladly turns to Gcd.

- 2 The Sacrifice the Lord ordain'd In type of the Redeemer's blood, Self-righteous reas'ning Cain difdain'd, And thought his own first-fruits as good.
- 3 Yet rage and envy fill'd his mind, When with a fullen downcaft look, He faw his brother favour find, Who God's appointed method took.
- 4 By Cain's own hand good Abel'd dy'd, Becaufe the Lord approv'd his faith; And, when his blood for vengeance cry'd, He vainly thought to hide his death.

- 5 Such was the wicked murd'rer Cain, And fuch by nature still are we, Until by grace we're born again, Malicious, blind, and proud, as he,
- 6 Like him, the way of grace we flight, And in our own devices truft; Call evil good, and darknefs light, And hate and perfecute the juft.
- 7 The faints in ev'ry age and place, Have found his hiftory fulfill'd; The numbers all our thoughts furpafs, Of Abels, whom the Cains have kill'd *!
- 8 Thus Jefus féll—but, oh! his blood Far better things than Abel's cries +; Obtains his murd'rers peace with God, And gains them manfions in the fkies.

III. C. Walking with God. Chap. v. 24.

- OH! for a clofer walk with God, A calm and heav'nly frame; A light, to fhine upon the road T hat leads me to the Lamb!
   Where is the bleffednefs I knew When firft I faw the Lord ? Where is the foul-refrefhing view Of Jefus, and his word ?
   What peaceful hours I once enjoy'd ! How fweet their mem'ry ftill ! But they have left an aching void, The world can never fill.
   Return, O holy Dove, return, Sweet meffenger of reft; I hate the fine that med the mourn
  - I hate the fins that made thee mourn, And drove thee from my breaft:

V 1V. Another.

- 1 BY faith in Chrift I walk with God, With heaven, my journey's end, in view; Supported by his ftaff and rod *, My road is fafe and pleafant too.
- 2 I travel thro' a defert wide, Where many round me blindly ftray; But he vouchfafes to be my guide t, And will not let me mifs my way.
- 3 Tho' fnares and dangers throng my path, And earth and hell my courfe withftand, I triumph over all by faith ‡, Guarded by his Almighty hand.
- 4 The wildernefs affords no food, But God for my fupport prepares; Provides me ev'ry needful good, And frees my foul from wants and cares.
- 5 With him fweet converse I maintain, Great as he is, I dare be free; I tell him all my grief and pain, And he reveals his love to me.

XXXVII. Jericho; Or, The Waters Hedled. Chap. ii. 19-22.

- I THO' Jericho pleafantly flood, And look'd like a promifing foil; The harveft produc'd little food, To anfwer the hufbandman's toil. The water fome property had, Which poifonous prov'd to the ground; The fprings were corrupted and bad, The ftreams fpread a barrennefs round.
- 2 But foon by the cruife and the falt, Prepar'd by Elisha's command,
- The water was cur'd of its fault, And plenty enriched the land; An emblem fure this of the grace On fruitlefs dead finners beftow'd; For Man is in Jericho's cafe, 'Till cur'd by the mercy of God.
- 3 How noble a creature he feems! What knowledge, invention, and fkill! How large and extensive his schemes! How much can he do if he will! His zeal to be learned and wife Will yield to no limits or bars; He measures the earth and the skies, And numbers and marshals the stars.
- 4 Yet ftill he is barren of good; In vain are his talents and art; For fin has infected his blood, And poifon'd the ftreams of his heart: Tho' cockatrice eggs he can hatch*, Or, fpider-like, cobwebs can weave; 'Tis madnefs to labour and watch For what will deftroy and deceive.

5 But grace, like the falt in the cruife, When caft in the fpring of the foul; A wonderful change will produce, Diffufing new life thro' the whole: The wildernefs blooms like a rofe, The heart which was vile and abhor'd, Now fruitful and beautiful grows, The garden and joy of the Lord.

XXXVIII. Naaman. Chap. v. 14.

 BEFORE Elifha's gate The Syrian leper flood; But could not brook to wait, He deem'd himfelf too good: He thought the prophet would attend, And not to bim a meffage fend.

- Have I this journey come, And will he not be feen? I were as well at home, Would wafhing make me clean; Why muft I wath in Jordan's flood? Damafcus rivers are as good.
- 3 Thus by his foolifh pride, He almoft mifs'd a cure; Howe'er at length he try'd, And found the method fure:
  Soon as his pride was brought to yield, The leprofy was quickly heal'd.

Hymn 87. MATTHEW.

LXXXVII. Peter walking upon the Water. Chap. xiv. 28-31.

1 A Word from Jefus calms the fea, The ftormy wind controuls, And gives repole and liberty To tempest-toffed fouls.

2 To Peter on the waves he came, And gave him inftant peace; Thus he to me reveal'd his name, And bid my forrow's ceafe.

3 Then fill'd with wonder, joy, and love, Peter's request was mine;

Lord, call me down, I long to prove That I am wholly thine.

 4 Unmov'd at all I have to meet On life's tempeftuous fea, Hard, fhall be eafy; bitter, fweet, So I may follow thee.

5 He heard and fmil'd, and bid me try, I eagerly obey'd; But when from him I turn'd my eye,

How was my foul difmay'd!

6 The ftorm increas'd on ev'ry fide, I felt my fpirit fhrink; And foon, with Peter, loud I cry'd, "Lord, fave me, or I fink."

7 Kindly he caught me by the hand, And faid, "Why doft thou fear? Since thou art come at my command, And I am always near.

8 Upon my promife reft thy hope, And keep my love in view;

I ftand engag'd to hold thee up, And guide thee fafely through."

LXXXVIII. Woman of Canaan. Chap. xv. 22-28.

- I PRAY'R an anfwer will obtain, Tho' the Lord awhile delay; None fhall feek his face in vain, None be empty fent away.
- 2 When the woman came from Tyre, And for help to Jefus fought; Tho' he granted her defire, Yet at first he answer'd not.
- Could fhe guefs at his intent,
  When he to his follow'rs faid,
  " I to Ifrael's fheep am fent,
  Dogs muft not have childrens bread."
- 4 She was not of Ifrael's feed, But of Canaan's wretched race; Thought herfelf a dog indeed; Was not this a hopelefs cafe?
- 5 Yet altho' from Canaan fprung, Tho' a dog herfelf fhe ftyl'd,
- . She had Ifrael's faith and tongue, And was own'd for Abram's child.
- 6 From his words fhe draws a plea: "Tho' unworthy childrens bread, 'I is enough for one like me, If with crumbs I may be fed."
- 7 Jefus then his heart reveal'd:
  "Woman, canft thou thus believe? I to thy petition yield, All that thou 'canft wifh, receive."
- 8 'Tis a pattern fet for us, How we ought to wait and pray; None who plead and wreftle thus Shall be empty fent away.

LXXXIX. What think ye of CHRIST? Chap. xxii. 42.

• WHAT think you of Chrift? is the teft To try both your flate and your fcheme; You cannot be right in the reft, Unlefs you think rightly of him. As Jefus appears in your view, As he is beloved or not; So God is difpofed to you, And mercy or wrath are your lot.

- 2 Some take him a creature to be,
  A man, or an angel at most:
  Sure these have not feelings like me,
  Nor know themselves wretched and lost:
  So guilty, fo helples am I,
  I durst not confide in his blood,
  Nor on his protection rely,
  Unless I were fure he is God.
- 3 Some call him a Saviour, in word, But mix their own works with his plan; And hope he his help will afford, When they have done all that they can: If doings prove rather too light, `` (A little, they own, they may fail), They purpofe to make up full weight, By cafting his name in the fcale.
- 4 Some ftyle him the pearl of great price, And fay he's the fountain of joys; Yet feed upon folly and vice, And cleave to the world and its toys: Like Judas, the Saviour they kifs, And while they falute him, betray; Ah! what will profession like this. Avail in his terrible day ?

XC. The Foolish Virgins *. Chap. xxv. 15.

WHEN, defcending from the fky,. The Bridegroom fhall appear,

And the folemn midnight cry

Shall call profeffors near, How the found our hearts will damp! How will fhame o'erfpread each face! If we only have a lamp,

Without the oil of grace.

2 Foolifh virgins then will wake, And feek for a fupply; But in vain the pains they take

To borrow or to buy: Then with those they now defpise, Earnestly they'll wish to share; But the best among the wise

Will have no oil to fpare.

3 Wife are they, and truly bleft, Who then fhall ready be! But defpair will feize the reft,

And dreadful mifery: Once they'll cry, we fcorn to doubt, Tho' in lies our truft we put; Now our lamp of hope is out,

The door of mercy fhut.

We on earth have heard and pray'd,,

And with thy faints did bow :" He will anfwer from his throne, "Tho' you with my people mix'd, Yet to me you ne'er were known; Depart, your doom is fix'd."

5 O that none who worship here May hear that word, depart !!

Lord, impress a godly fear

On each profeffor's heart: Help us, Lord, to fearch the camp, Let us not ourfelves beguile; Trufting to a dying lamp,

Without a flock of oil.

XCI. Peter finning and repentings. Chap. xxvi. 73.

- WHEN Peter boafted, foon he fell,.
   Yet was by grace reftor'd;
   His cafe fhould be regarded well
   By all who fear the Lord.
- 2 A voice it has, and helping hand, Backfliders to recall;
  - And cautions those who think they stand, Less fuddenly they fall.
- 3 He faid, "Whatever others do, With Jefus I'll abide;"
   Yet foon amidft a murd'rous crew. His fuff'ring Lord deny'd.

 4 He who had been fo bold before; Now trembled like a leaf;
 Not only ly'd, but curs'd and fwore; To gain the more belief.

5 While he blasphem'd, he heard the cock, And Jefus look'd in love; At once, as if by light'ning ftruck, His tongue forebore to move. 6 Deliver'd thus from Satan's fnare, He ftarts, as from a fleep; His Saviour's look he could not bear, But hasted forth to weep. 7 But fure the faithful cock had crow'd. A hundred times in vain, Had not the Lord that look beftow'd. The meaning to explain. 8 As I, like Peter, vows have made, Yet acted Peter's part; So conficence, like the cock, upbraids. My bafe, ungrateful heart. 9 1 ord l'efus, hear a finner's cry, My broken peace renew; And grant one pitying look, that I May weep with Peter too.

  Yet in this forlorn condition,
  - When he came to fet me free, I reply'd to my Phylician, "What have I to do with thee?"

Ent

But he would not be prevented; Refcu'd me againft my will; Had he ftaid till I confented, I had been a captive ftill.

- 3 "Satan, tho' thou fain wouldft have it; Know this foul is none of thine; I have fhed my blood to fave it, Now I challenge it for mine *: Tho' it long has thee refembled, Henceforth it fhall me obey;" Thus he fpoke, while Satan trembled; Gnafh'd his teeth, and fled away.
- 4 Thus my frantic foul he healed, Bid my fins and forrows ceafe; "Take, faid he, my pardon fealed, I have fav'd thee, go in peace:" Rather take me, Lord, to heaven, Now thy love and grace I know; Since thou haft my fins forgiven, Why fhould I remain below!
- 5 "Love, he faid, will fweeten labours, Thou haft fomething yet to do; Go and tell your friends and neighbours. What my love has done for you; Live to manifeft my glory, Wait for heav'n a little fpace; Sinners when they hear thy ftory,. Will repent and ieek my face."

Long we either flight or doubt him, But when all the means we try Prove we cannot do without him, Then at laft to him we cry.

- 2 Thus the ruler when his daughter Suffer'd much tho' Chrift was nigh, Still deferr'd it, till he thought her At the very point to die: Tho' he mourn'd for her condition, He did not intreat the Lord, Till he found that no phyfician But himfelf could help afford.
- 3 Jefus did not once upbraid him, That he had no fooner come;
  But a gracious anfwer made him, And went ftraitway with him home: Yet his faith was put to trial
  When his fervants came, and faid,
  "Tho' he gave thee no denial,
  "Tis too late, the child is dead.""
- Jefus, to prevent his grieving, Kindly fpoke and eas'd his pain ;;
  "Be not fearful; but believing, Thou fhalt fee her live again :"
  When he found the people weeping,
  "Ceafe, he faid, no longer mourn ; For fhe is not dead, but fleeping,"
  Then they laughed him to fcorn.

XCIV. But one Loaf *. Chap. viii. 14.

- I WHEN the difciples crofs'd the lake With but one loaf on board, How ftrangely did their hearts miftake. The caution of their Lord.
- 2 " The leaven of the Pharifees Beware," the Saviour faid;
   They thought, it is becaufe he fees We have forgotten bread.
- 3 It feems they had forgotten too What their own eyes had view'd; How with what fcarce fuffic'd for few,.

He fed a multitude.

- 4: If five fmall loaves, by his command, Could many thousands ferve; Might they not trust his gracious hand, That they should never starve?
- 5. They oft his power and love had known,. And doubtlefs were to blame; But we have reafon good to own. That we are just the fame.

And welcom'd me indeed. 5 When the load of fin is felt, And much forgiveness known, Then the heart of course will melt. Tho' hard before as ftone : Blame not then her love and tears, Greatly the in debt has been; But I have remov'd her fears, And pardon'd all her fin." 6 When I read this woman's cafe, Her love and humble zeal, I confess, with shame of face, My heart is made of steel. - 4 With warmth fhe to her fifter fpoke, But brought upon herfelf rebuke: " One thing is needful, and but one, Why do thy thoughts on many run?"
- 5 How oft are we like Martha vex'd, Encumber'd, hurried, and perplex'd? While trifles fo engrofs our thought, Tho one thing needful is forgot.
- Lord, teach us this one thing to choofe, Which they who gain can never lofe;
   Sufficient in itfelf alone, And needful, were the world our own.

OUR Lord, who knows full well The heart of ev'ry faint,

Invites us by a parable, To pray and never faint.

2 He bows his gracious ear, We never plead in vain;

Yet we must wait till he appear, And pray, and pray again.

- 3 Tho' unbelief fuggeft, Why fhould we longer wait ? He bids us never give him reft, But be importunate.

CX. The two Malefactors. Chap. xxiii. 39-43.

- I SOVEREIGN grace has pow'r alone To fubdue a heart of ftone; And the moment grace is felt, Then the hardeft heart will melt.
- 2 When the Lord was crucify'd, Two tranfgreffors with him dy'd; One, with vile blafpheming tongue, Scoff'd at Jefus as he hung.
- 3 Thus he fpent his wicked breath, In the very jaws of death; Perifh'd, as too many do, With the Saviour in his view.
- 4 But the other, touch'd with grace, Saw the danger of his cafe; Faith receiv'd to own the Lord, Whom the fcribes and priefts abhor'd.
- 5 "Lord, (he pray'd), remember me, When in glory thou fhalt be :" "Soon with me, (the Lord replies), Thou fhalt reft in Paradife."
- 6 This was wond'rous grace indeed, Grace vouchfaf'd in time of need ! Sinners truft in Jefu's name, You fhall find him ftill the fame.
- 7 But beware of unbelief, Think upon the harden'd thief; If the gofpel you difdain, Chrift, to you, will die in vain.

3 But my complaints remain; I feel the very fame;

As full of guilt, and fear, and pain, As when at first I came.

4 O would the Lord appear My malady to heal;

He knows how long I've languish'd here And what distress I feel.

- 5 How often have I thought Why fhould I longer lie?
  - Surely the mercy I have fought Is not for fuch as I?
- 6 But whither can I go? There is no other pool Where ftreams of fov'reign virtue flow To make a finner whole?

7 Here then, from day to day, I'll wait, and hope, and try;

All his chains and fetters burft, Ev'ry door wide open flew; Peter thought he dream'd at first, But found the vision true.

Thus the Lord can make away To bring his faints relief;

'Tis their part to wait and pray, In fpite of unbelief:

He can break thro' walls of stone, Sink the mountain to a plain; They to whom his name is known Can never pray in vain.

Thus, in chains of guilt and fin, Poor finners fleeping lie;

CXLI. The Little Book *. Chap. x.

- 1 WHEN the belov'd difciple took The Angel's little open book, Which by the Lord's command he ear; It tafted bitter after fweet.
- 2 Thus when the gofpel is embrac'd, At first 'tis sweeter to the taste Than honey, or the honey-comb, But there's a bitterness to come.
- 3 What fweetnefs does the promife yield, When by the fpirit's power feal'd? The longing foul is fill'd with good, Nor feels a wish for other food,
- 4. By these inviting tastes allur'd, We pass to what must be endur'd; For soon we find it is decreed, That bitter must to sweet succeed.
- 5 When fin revives and fhews its pow'r, When fatan threatens to devour, When God afflicts, and men revile, We draw our fteps with pain and toil.
- 6 When thus deferted, tempest-toft, The fense of former sweetness lost, We tremble less were deceiv'd In thinking that we once believ'd.
- 7 The Lord first makes the fweetens known, To win and fix us for his own;
  And tho' we now fome bitter meet, We hope for everlasting fweet.

NEW-YEARS HYMNS.

I. Time how fwift.

- WHILE with ceafelefs courfe the fun Hafted thro' the former year, Many fouls their race have run, Never more to meet us here: Fixt in an eternal flate, They have done with all below; We a little longer wait, But how little-none can know.
- 2 As the winged arrow flies, Speedily the mark to find; As the lightning from the fkies Darts, and leaves no trace behind; Swiftly thus our fleeting days Bear us down life's rapid ftream; Upwards, Lord, our fpinits raife, All below is but a dream.

3 Thanks Digitized by Google 3 Thanks for mercies paft receive, Pardon of our fins renew; Teach us, henceforth, how to live With eternity in view: Blefs thy word to young and old, Fill us with a Saviour's love; And when life's fhort tale is told, May we dwell with thee above.

II. Time how fort.

- I TIME, with an unwearied hand, Pushes round the feasons past; And in life's frail glass the fand Sinks apace, not long to last: Many just as you or I, Who last year affembled thus, In their filent graves now lie, Graves will open foon for us!
- 2 Daily fin, and care, and ftrife, While the Lord prolongs our breath, Make it but a dying life, Or a kind of living death: Wretched they and most forlorn, Who no better portion know; Better ne'er to have been born, Than to have our all below.
- 3 When conftrain'd to go alone, Leaving all you love behind, Ent'ring on a world unknown, What will then fupport your mind? When the Lord his fummons fends*, Earthly comforts lofe their pow'r; Honour, riches, kindred, friends, Cannot cheer a dying hour.

* Ifaiah, x: 3-

4 Happy

4 Happy fouls who fear the Lord ! Time is not too fwift for you; When your Saviour gives the word, Glad you'll bid the world adieu: Then he'll wipe away your tears, Near himfelf appoint your place; Swifter fly, ye rolling years, Lord, we long to fee thy face !

III. Uncertainty of Life.

- SEE! another year is gone! Quickly have the feafons pafs'd! This we enter now upon Will to many prove their laft: Mercy hitherto has fpar'd, But have mercies been improv'd? Let us afk, Am I prepar'd Should I be this year remov'd?
- 2 Some we now no longer fee, Who their mortal race have run; Seem'd as fare for life as we, When the former year begun: Some, but who God only knows, Who are here affembled now, Ere the prefent year fhall clofe, To the ftroke of death muft bow.
- 3 Life a field of battle is, Thoufands fall within our view; And the next death-bolt that flies, May be fent to me or you: While we preach, and while we hear, Help us, Lord, each one to think, Vaft eternity is near, I am ftanding on the brink.
- 4 If from guilt and fin fet free, By the knowledge of thy grace; Welcome, then, the call will be To depart and fee thy face:

To

To thy faints, while here below, With new years, new mercies come; But the happieft year they know, Is their last which leads them home.

IV. A New-Year's Thought and Prayer.

TIME, by moments, fteals away, Firft the hour, and then the day; Small the daily lofs appears, Yet it foon amounts to years: Thus another year is flown, Now it is no more our own, If it brought or promis'd good, Than the years before the flood.

- 2 But (may none of us forget) It has left us much in debt; Favours from the Lord receiv'd, Sins that have his Spirit griev'd, Mark'd by an unerring hand, In his book recorded ftand; Who can tell the vaft amount, Plac'd to each of our account?
- 3 Happy the believing foul! Chrift for you has paid the whole; While you own the debt is large, You may plead a full difcharge: But, poor carelefs finner, fay, What can you to juftice pay? Tremble, left, when life is paft, Into prifon you be caft!
- 4 Will you ftill increase the fcore? Still be careless as before? Oh, forbid it gracious Lord, Touch their spirits by thy word? Now, in mercy, to them show What a mighty debt they owe! All their unbelief subdue; Let them find forgiveness too.

5 Spar'd

5 Spar'd to fee another year, Let thy bleffing meet us here; Come, thy dying work revive, Bid thy drooping garden thrive : Sun of righteoulnels, arife! Warm our hearts, and blefs our eyes; Let our pray'r thy bowels move, Make this year a time of love.

V. Death and War. 1778.

- I HARK! how Time's wide-founding bell Strikes on each attentive ear! Tolling loud the folemn knell Of the late departed year: Years, like mortals, wear away, Have their birth and dying day, Youthful foring, and wint'ry age. Then to others quit the ftage.
- 2 Sad experience may relate
  What a year the laft has been !
  Crops of forrow have been great,
  From the fruitful feeds of fin:
  Oh ! what numbers gay and blithe,
  Fell by Death's unfparing fcythe :
  While they thought the world their own,
  Suddenly he mow'd them down.
- 3 See how War, with dreadful ftride, Marches at the Lord's command, Spreading defolation wide, T hro' a once much favour'd land: War, with heart and arms of fteel, Preys on thousands at a meal; Daily drinking human gore, Still he thirfts and calls for more.
- 4 If the God whom we provoke, Hither fhould his way direct; What a fin-avenging ftroke May a land like this expect!

They

They who now fecurely fleep, Quickly then would wake and weep; And too late would learn to fear, When they faw the danger near.

5 You are fafe who know his love, He will all his truth perform; To your fouls a refuge prove From the rage of ev'ry florm: But we tremble for the youth; Teach them, Lord, thy faving truth; Join them to thy faithful few, Be to them a refuge too.

VI. Earthly Prospects deceitful.

- OFT in vain the voice of Truth Solemnly and loudly warns; Thoughtlefs, unexperienc'd youth, Tho' it hears, the warning fcorns: Youth in Fancy's glafs furveys Life prolong'd to diftant years, While the vaft imagin'd fpace Fill'd with fweets and joys appears.
- 2 Awful difappointment foon Overclouds the profpect gay; Some their fun goes down at noon, Torn by Death's ftrong hand away: Where are then their pleafing fchemes? Where the joys they hop'd to find? Gone for ever, like their dreams, Leaving not a trace behind.
- 3 Others who are fpar'd awhile, 1 ive to weep o'er Fancy's cheat; Find diftrefs, and pain, and toil, Bitter things inftead of fweet: Sin has fpread a curfe around, Poifon'd all things here below; On this bafe polluted ground Peace aad joy can never grow.

4 Grace

- Hymn 7.
- 4 Grace alone can cure our ills, Sweeten life with all its cares; Regulate our flubborn wills, Save us from furrounding fnares; Tho' you oft have heard in vain, Former years in folly fpent; Grace invites you yet again, Once more calls you to repent.
- 5 Call'd again, at length, beware, Hear the Saviour's voice and live; Left he in his wrath fhould fwear, He no more will warning give: Pray that you may hear and feel, Ere the day of grace be paft; Left your hearts grow hard as fteel, Or this year fhould prove your laft.

HYMNS before Annual Sermons to Young People, on New Years Evenings,

VII. Prayer for a Bleffing.

- 1 NOW, gracious Lord, thine arm reveal, And make thy glory known; Now let us all thy prefence feel, And foften hearts of ftone !
- 2 Help us to venture near thy throne, And plead a Saviour's name;
   For all that we can call our own, Is vanity and fhame.
- 3 From all the guilt of former fin May mercy fet us free; And let the year we now begin, Begin and end with thee.

5 And when before thee we appear, In our eternal home,

May growing numbers worfhip here, And praife thee in our room.

VIII. C. Another.

 BESTOW, dear Lord, upon our youth The gift of faving grace;
 And let the feed of facred truth Fall in a fruitful place.

- 2 Grace is a plant, where-e'er it grows, Of pure and heav'nly root; But faireft in the youngeft fhews, And yields the fweeteft fruit.
- 3 Ye carelefs ones, O hear betimes The voice of fov'reign love! Your youth is ftain'd with many crimes, But mercy reigns above.
- 4 True, you are young, but there's a ftone Within the youngeft breaft,

Or half the crimes which you have done, Would rob you of your reft.

- 5 For you the public pray'r is made, Oh! join the public pray'r! For you the fecret tear is fhed, O fhed yourfelves a tear!
- We pray that you may early prove The Spirit's pow'r to teach;
   You cannot be too young to love That Jefús whom we preach.

IX.

IX. Another.

- r NOW may fervent pray'r arife, Wing'd with faith, and pierce the fkies; Fervent pray'r fhall bring us down Gracious anfwers from the thron e.
- 2 Blefs, O Lord, the op'ning year To each foul affembled here; Clothe thy word with pow'r divine, Make us willing to be thine.
- 3 Shepherd of thy blood-bought fheep! Teach the ftony heart to weep; Let the blind have eyes to fee, See themfelves, and look on thee!
- 4 Let the minds of all our youth Feel the force of facred truth; While the gofpel call we hear, May they learn to love and fear.
- 5 Shew them what their ways have been, Shew them the defert of fin; Then thy dying love reveal, This shall melt a heart of steel.
- 6 Where thou haft thy work begun, Give new firength the race to run; Scatter darknefs, doubts, and fears, Wipe away the mourners tears.
- 7 Blefs us all, both old and young; Call forth praife from ev'ry tongue; Let the whole affembly prove All thy pow'r, and all thy love.

X. Cafting the Gospel Net.

I WHEN Peter, thro' the tedious night *, Had often cast his net in vain;

Luke v. 4.

Soon

I 54

Soon as the Lord appear'd in fight, He gladly let it down again.

- 2 Once more the gofpel net we caft, Do thou, O Lord, the effort own; We learn from difappointments paft, To reft our hope on thee alone.
- 3 Upheld by thy fupporting hand, We enter on another year; And now we meet at thy command, To feek thy gracious prefence here.
- 4 May this be a much-favour'd hour, `To fouls in Satan's bondage led; O clothe thy word with fov'reign pow'r, To break the rocks, and raife the dead!
- 5 Have mercy on our num'rous youth, Who, young in years, are old in fin; And by thy fpirit and thy truth, Shew them the flate their fouls are in.
- 6 Then by a Saviour's dying love, To ev'ry wounded heart reveal'd, Temptations, fears, and guilt remove, And be their Sun, and Strength, and Shield.
- 7 To mourners fpeak a chearing word, On feeking fouls vouchfafe to thine; Let poor backfliders be reftor'd, And all thy faints in praifes join.
- 8 O hear our prayer, and give us hope, That when thy voice fhall call us home, Thou ftill wilt raife a people up, To love and praife thee in our room.

XI. C. Pleading for and with Youth.

- I SIN has undone our wretched race, But Jelus has reftor'd,
  - And brought the finner face to face With his forgiving Lord.

And prefs upon our youth ;
Lord, give them an attentive ear, Lord, fave them by thy truth.
3 Bleffings upon the rifing race ! Make this an happy hour, According to thy richeft grace, And thine almighty pow'r.
4 We feel for your unhappy flate, (May you regard it too) And would awhile ourfelves forget To pour out pray'r for you.
5 We fee, tho' you perceive it not, Th' approaching arefel by

2 This we repeat, from year to year,

Th' approaching, awful doom; O tremble at the folemn thought, And flee the wrath to come!

• Dear Saviour, let this new-born year Spread an alarm abroad;

Whether the Lord was God or Baal! His features glow with love and zeal; In faith and pray'r he lifts his hand, And makes to heav'n his great appeal. And fhow this people who thou art !" 4 He spake, and lo! a fudden flame Confum'd the wood, the dust, the stone; The people ftruck, at once proclaim

" The Lord is God, the Lord alone."

XV. Preaching to the dry Bones *.

- PREACHERS may from Ezekiel's cafe, Draw hope in this declining day; A proof, like this, of fov'reign grace Should chafe our unbelief away.
- 3 When fent to preach to mould'ring bones, Who could have thought he would fucceed? But well he knew the Lord from ftones Could raife up Abraham's chosen feed.
- 3 Can thefe be made a num'rous hoft, And fuch dry bones new life receive ? The prophet answer'd, " Lord, thou know'st They shall, if thou commandment give."
- 4 Like him around I caft my eye, And oh! what heaps of bones appear; Like him, by Jefus fent , I'll try, For he can cause the dead to hear.
- 5 Hear, ye dry bones, the Saviour's word! He, who when dying, gasp'd, "Forgive," That gracious finner-loving Lord, Says, " Look to me, dry bones and live."
- 6 Thou heav'nly wind awake and blow, In answer to the pray'r of faith; Now thine almighty influence flow, And fill dry bones with living breath.
- 7 O make them hear, and feel, and fhake, And, at thy call, obedient move; The bonds of death and Satan break, And bone to bone unite in love.

- 3 But what could Mofes' rod have done Had he not been divinely fent? The pow'r was from the Lord alone, And Mofes but the inftrument.
- 4 O Lord, regard thy peoples prayers! Affift a worm to preach aright; And fince thy golpel-rod he bears, Difplay thy wonders in our fight.
- 5 Proclaim the thunders of thy law, Like lightning let thine arrows fly, That carelefs finners ftruck with awe, For refuge may to Jefus fly.
- 6 Make ftreams of godly forrow flow, From rocky hearts, unus'd to feel; And let the poor in fpirit know That thou art near, their griefs to heal.
- 7 But chiefly we would now look up To alk a bleffing for our youth, The rifing generations hope, That they may know and love thy truth.

- 4 Hark! how from Calvary it founds, From the Redeemer's bleeding wounds! "Pardon and grace, I freely give, Poor finner, look to me, and live."
- 5 What other arguments can move The heart that flights a Saviour's love! Yet till almighty pow'r conftrain, This matchlefs love is preach'd in vain.
- 6 O Saviour, let that pow'r be felt, And caufe each ftony heart to melt! Deeply imprefs upon our youth The light and force of golpel truth.

- While I view the plenteous grain As it ripens on the ftalk, May I not inftruction gain Helpful to my daily walk ? All this plenty of the field Was produc'd from foreign feeds; For the earth itfelf would yield Only crops of ufelefs weeds.
- 3 Tho', when newly fown, it lay Hid awhile beneath the ground, (Some might think it thrown away), Now a large increase is found: Tho' conceal'd, it was not loss, Tho' it dy'd, it lives again; Eastern storms, and nipping frosts, Have oppos'd its growth in vain.
- 4 Let the praife be all the Lord's, As the benefit is our's! He, in feafon, ftill affords Kindly heat, and gentle fhow'rs: By his care the produce thrives, Waving o'er the furrow'd lands; And when harveft-time arrives, Ready for the reaper ftands.

CHRISTMAS.

VXXXVII. Praise for the Incarnation.

 SWEETER founds than mufic knows Charm me in Emmanuel's name; All her hopes my fpirit owes To his birth, and crofs, and fhame.
 When he came, the angels fung, "Glory be to God on high;" Lord, unloofe my ftamm'ring tongue, Who fhould louder fing than I ?
 Did the Lord a man become,

That he might the law fulfil, Bleed and fuffer in my room, And can'ft thou, my tongue, be ftill?

 4 No, I must my praises bring, Tho' they worthles are and weak; For should I refuse to sing, Sure the very stones would speak.

5 O my Saviour, Shield, and Sun, Shepherd, Brother, Hufband, Friend, Ev'ry precious name in one, I will love thee without end.

SXXXVIII. C. JEHOVAH JESUS.

- 1 MY fong fhall blefs the Lord of all, My praife fhall climb to his abode; Thee, Saviour, by that name I call, The great, fupreme, the mighty God.

- 6 And grace not light alone beftows, But adds a quick'ning pow'r; The defert bloffoms like the role †, And fin prevails no more.

LXXXVII. The Sea ‡.

- I IF for a time the air be calm, Serene and fmooth the fea appears, And fhews no danger to alarm The unexperienc'd landfman's fears:
- 2 But if the tempest once arise, The faithles water swells and raves; Its billows, foaming to the skies, Disclose a thousand threat'ning graves.
- 3 My untry'd heart thus feem'd to me (So little of myfelf I knew) Smooth as the calm unruffled fea, But, ah! it prov'd as treach'rous too?

- 224
- 4 The peace of which I had a tafte When Jefus first his love reveal'd, I fondly hop'd would always last, Becaufe my foes were then conceal'd.
- 5 But when I felt the tempter's pow'r Roufe my corruptions from their fleep, I trembled at the ftormy hour, And faw the horrors of the deep.
- 6 Now on prefumption's billows borne, My fpirit feem'd the Lord to dare; Now, quick as thought, a fudden turn Plung'd me in gulphs of black defpair.
- 7 Lord, fave me, or I fink, I pray'd; He heard, and bid the tempelt ceafe; The angry waves his word obey'd, And all my fears were hufh'd to peace.
- 8 The peace is his, and not my own, My heart (no better than before) Is ftill to dreadful changes prone, Then let me never truit it more.

LXXXVIII. The Flood.

- I THO' fmall the drops of falling rain, If one be fingly view'd; Collected, they o'erfpread the plain, And form a mighty flood.
- 2 The houfe it meets with in its courfe Should not be built on clay, Left, with a wild refifillers force, It fweep the whole away.

3 Tho' for awhile it feem'd fecure, It will not bear the fhock, Unlefs it has foundations fure, And ftands upon a rock.

4 Thus

- 4 Thus finners think their evil deeds, Like drops of rain, are fmall; But it the pow'r of thought exceeds, To count the fum of all.
- 5 One fin can raife, tho' fmall it feems, A flood to drown the foul; What then, when countlefs million ftreams Shall join to fwell the whole.
- 6 Yet, while they think the weather fair, If warn'd, they fmile or frown; But they will tremble and defpair, When the fierce flood comes down.
- 7 Oh! then on Jefus ground your hope, That ftone in Zion laid *;
   Left your poor building quickly drop, With ruin on your head.

LXXXIX. The Thaw.

- I THE ice and fnow we lately faw, Which cover'd all the ground, Are melted foon before the thaw, And can no more be found.
- 2 Could all the art of man fuffice To move away the fnow,
  - To clear the rivers from the ice, Or make the waters flow ?
- 3 No, 'tis the work of God alone; An emblem of the pow'r
  By which he melts the heart of ftone In his appointed hour.
- 4 All outward means, till he appears, Will ineffectual prove;
  - Tho' much the finner fees and hears, He cannot learn to love.
    - * Matt. vii. 24. Peter ii. 6.

5 But

- 5 But let the floutest finner feel The fost'ning warmth of Grace, Tho' hard as ice, or rocks, or steel, His heart diffolves apace.
- 6 Seeing the blood which Jefus fpilt, . To fave his foul from woe, His hatred, unbelief, and guilt, . All melt away like fnow.
- 7 Jefus, we in thy name intreat, Reveal thy gracious arm; And grant thy fpirit's kindly heat, Our frozen hearts to warm.

XC. The Load Stone.

- I AS needles point towards the pole, When touch'd by the magnetic ftone; So faith in Jefus gives the foul A tendency before unknown.
- ² Till then, by blinded paffions led, In fearch of fancy'd good we range; The paths of difappointment tread, To nothing fix'd, but love of change.
  - 3 But when the Holy Ghoft imparts A knowledge of the Saviour's love, Our wand'ring, weary, reftlefs hearts, Are fix'd at once, no more to move.
  - 4 Now a new principle takes place, Which guides and animates the will; This love, another name for grace, Conftrains to good, and bars from ill.
  - 5 By love's pure light we foon perceive Our nobleft blifs and proper end; And gladly ev'ry idol leave,
  - To love and ferve our Lord and Friend.

6 Thus

6 Thus borne along by faith and hope, We feel the Saviour's words are true; "And I, if I be lifted up *, Will draw the finner upward too."

XCI. The Spider and Bee.

- I ON the fame flow'r we often fee The lothfome fpider and the bee; But what they get by working there Is diff'rent as their natures are.
- 2 The bee a fweet reward obtains, And honey well repays his pains; Home to the hive he bears the flore, And then returns in queft of more.
- 3 But no fweet flow'r that grace the held Can honey to the fpider yield; A cobweb all that he can fpin, And poifon all he ftores within.
- 4 Thus in that facred field, the Word, With flow'rs of God's own planting ftor'd, Like bees his children feed and thrive, And bring home honey to the hive.
- 5 There fpider-like, the wicked come; And feem to tafte the fweet perfume; But the vile venom of their hearts To poifon all their food converts.
- 6 From the fame truths believers prize, They weave vain refuges of lies; And from the promife licence draw, To trifle with the holy law.
- 7 Lord, fhall thy word of life and love The means of death to numbers prove ! Unlefs thy grace our hearts renew +, We fink to hell with heav'n in view.

XCII, The Bee faved from the Spider.

- THE fubtle fpider often weaves His unfufpected fnares Among the balmy flow'rs and leaves, To which the bee repairs.
- 2 When in his web he fees one hang, With a malicious joy, He darts upon it with his fang,
  - To poifon and deftroy.
- How welcome then fome pitying friend, To fave the threaten'd bee!
   The fpider's treach'rous web to rend, And fet the captive free!
- 4 My foul has been in fuch a cafe : When first I knew the Lord, I hasted to the means of grace, Where fweets I knew were stor'd.
- 5 Little I thought of danger near, That foon my joys would ebb; But ah! I met a fpider there, Who caught me in his web.
- 6 Then Satan rais'd his pois'nous fling, And aim'd his blows at me;
  While I, poor helplefs trembling thing, Could neither fight nor flee.
- 7 But oh! the Saviour's pitying eye Reliev'd me from defpair;
  He faw me at the point to die, And broke the fatal fnare.
- 8 My cafe his heedlefs faints fhould warn, Or cheer them if afraid;
  - May you from me your danger learn, And where to look for aid.

XCIII. The tamed Lion.

 A lion tho' by nature wild, The art of man can tame;
 He ftands before his keeper, mild, And gentle as a lamb.

5 Alike in vain, of grace that faves, Or threat'ning law, he hears: The favage fcorns, blafphemes, and raves, But neither loves nor fears.

6 O Saviour! how thy wond'rous pow'r By angels is proclaim'd! When in thine own appointed hour,

They fee this lion tam'd.

7 The love thy bleeding crofs difplays, The hardeft heart fubdues; Here furious lions while they gaze, Their rage and fiercenefs lofe*.

Lord, drive him wholly from my heart, Or keep him fast in chains.

XCIV. Sheep.

- The Saviour calls his people fheep, And bids them on his love rely; For he alone their fouls can keep, And he alone their wants fupply.
- 2 The bull can fight, the hare can flee, The ant in fummer, food prepare; But helplefs fheep, and fuch are we, Depend upon the fhepherd's care.
- 3 Jehovah is our fhepherd's name *, Then what have we, tho' weak, to fear ? Our fin and folly we proclaim, If we defpond while he is near.
- 4 When Satan threatens to devour, When troubles prefs on ev'ry fide, Think on our thepherd's care and pow'r, He can defend, and he provide.
- 5 See the rich pastures of his grace; Where in full streams, falvation flows! There he appoints our resting-place, And we may feed, fecure from foes.
- 6 There, 'midft the flock, the fhepherd dwells, The Sheep around in fafety lie; The wolf, in vain, with malice fwells, For he protects them with his eye t.
- 7 Dear Lord, if I am one of thine, From anxious thoughts I would be free; To truft, and love, and praife, is mine, The care of all belongs to thee.

4 The garden of Gethfemane The fecond Adam faw, Opprefs'd with woe, to fet us free From the avenging law.

- 5 How stupid we, who can forget, With gardens in our fight, His agonies and bloody sweat, In that tremendous night!
- His church as a fair garden stands, Which walls of love inclose;
   Each tree is planted by his hand *, And by his blessing grows.
- 7 Believing hearts are gardens too, For grace has fown its feeds, Where once, by nature, nothing grew But thorns and worthlefs weeds.

- 2 The fire reftrain'd by God's commands, Could only burn his people's bands *, Too faint when he was with them there, To finge their garments or their hair.
- 3 At Daniel's feet the lions lay + Like harmlefs lambs, nor touch'd their prey; And ravens, which on carrion fed, Procur'd Elijah flefh and bread.
- 4 Thus creatures only can fulfil Their great Creator's holy will; And when his fervants need their aid, His purpofes must be obey'd.
- 5 So if his bleffing he refufe, Their pow'r to help they quickly lofe, Sure as on creatures we depend, Our hopes on difappointment end.
- 6 Then let us truft the Lord alone, And creature-confidence difown, Nor if they threaten need we fear, They cannot hurt if he be near.
- 7 If inftruments of pain they prove, Still they are guided by his love; As lancets by the furgeon's skill, Which wound to cure, and not to kill.

- WHEN flumber feals our weary eyes, The bufy fancy wakeful keeps; The fcenes which then before us rife, Prove, fomething in us never fleeps.

† Daniel vi. 23: 3 Sometimes: 3 Sometimes the mind beholds again The paft day's bus'nefs in review; Refumes the pleafure or the pain, And fometimes all we meet is new.

- 4 What fchemes we form, what pains we take ! We fight, we run, we fly, we fall; But all is ended when we wake, We fcarcely then a trace recall.
- 5 But tho' our dreams are often wild, Like clouds before the driving florm; Yet fome important may be ftyl'd, Sent to admonifh or inform.
- 6 What mighty agents have accefs, What friends from heav'n, or foes from hell, Our minds to comfort or diftrefs, When we are fleeping, who can tell?
- 7 One thing, at leaft, and 'tis enough, We learn from this furpriling fact; Our dreams afford fufficient proof, The foul, without the flefth, can act.
- 8 This life, which mortals fo effeem, That many choofe it for their all, They will confefs, was but a dream *,
  When 'waken'd by death's awful call.

XCIX. The World.

- I SEE, the world for youth prepares, Harlot like, her guady fnares! Pleafures round her feem to wait, But 'tis all a painted cheat.
- 2 Rash and unfuspecting youth Thinks to find thee always smooth, Always kind, till better taught, By experience dearly bought.

- 5 But ere long the tempest raves, Then he trembles at the waves; Withes then he had been wife, But too late—he finks and dies.
- 6 Haplefs thus, are they, vain world, Soon on rocks of ruin hurl'd, Who admiring thee, untry'd, Court thy pleafure, wealth, or pride.
- 7 Such a fhipwreck had been mine, Had not Jefus (Name divine !) Sav'd me with a mighty hand, And reftor'd my foul to land.
- 8 Now, with gratitude I raife Ebenezers to his praife; Now my rath purfuits are o'er, I can truft thee, world, no more.

STOP, poor finner! ftop and think I Before you farther go ! Will you fport upon the brink Of everlasting woe? Once again, I charge you, ftop ! For, unlefs you warning take, Ere you are aware, you drop Into the burning lake ! Say, have you an arm like God, 2 That you his will oppofe? Fear you not that iron rod With which he breaks his focs? Can you ftand in that dread day, When he judgment shall proclaim, And the earth shall melt away Like wax before the flame? Pale-fac'd death will quickly come 3 To drag you to his bar; Then to hear your awful doom Will fill you with defpair : All your fins will round you crowd, Sins of a blood-crimfon dye; Each for vengeance crying loud, And what can you reply? Tho' your heart be made of steel, Your forehead lin'd with brafs, God at length will make you feel, He will not let you pass: Sinners then in vain will call, (Tho' they now defpife his grace) Rocks and mountains on us fall *, And hide us from his face. 5 But as yet there is a hope You may his mercy know; Tho' his arm is lifted up, He still forbears the blow : Rev. vi. 16.

2 Is this polluted heart A dwelling fit for thee ? Swarming, alas! in ev'ry part, What evils do I fee !

3 If I attempt to pray, And lifp thy holy name, My thoughts are hurry'd foon away, I know not where I am.

 If in thy word I look, Such darknefs fills my mind,
 I only read a fealed book, But no relief can find.

XXXIII. The benighted Traveller.

- FOREST beafts, that live by prey, Seldom fhew themfelves by day; But when day-light is withdrawn †, Then they rove and roar till dawn.
- 2 Who can tell the trav'ller's fears, When their horrid yells he hears? Terror almost stops his breath, While each step he looks for death.
- 3 Thus when Jefus is in view, Cheerful I my way purfue; Walking by my Saviour's light, Nothing can my foul affright.

Hymn 34.

- 4 But when he forbears to fhine, Soon the trav'ller's cafe is mine; Loft, benighted, ftruck with dread, What a painful path I tread!
- 5 Then my foul with terror hears Worfe than lions, wolves, or bears, Roaring loud in ev'ry part, Thro' the foreft of my heart.
- 6 Wrath, impatience, envy, pride, Satan and his hoft befide,
  - Prefs around me to devour; How can I escape their pow'r?
- 7 Gracious Lord, afford me light, Put these bcasts of prey to flight; Let thy pow'r and love be shewn *; Save me, for 1 am thine own.

XXXIV. The Prisoner.

- WHEN the poor pris'ner thro' a grate Sees others walk at large.
   How does he mourn his lonely ftate, And long for a difcharge !
- 2 Thus I, confin'd in unbelief, My lofs of freedom mourn;
   And fpend my hours in fruitlefs grief, Until my Lord return.
- 3 The beam of day, which pierces thro' The gloom in which I dwell, Only difclofes to my view The horrors of my cell.
- 4 Ah! how my penfive fpirit faints, To think of former days!

When I could triumph with the faints, And join their fongs of praise!

7 Surely my foul shall fing to thee, For liberty reftor'd;

And all thy faints admire to fee The mercies of the Lord.

XXXV. Perplexity relieved.

- NCERTAIN how the way to find 1 Which to falvation led,
  - I lift'ned long, with anxious mind, To hear what others faid.
- 2 When fome of joys and comforts told, I fear'd that I was wrong; For I was stupid, dead, and cold, Had neither joy nor fong.
- 3 The Lord my lab'ring heart reliev'd, And made my burden light; Then for a moment 1 believ'd, Supposing all was right.

4 Of fierce temptations others talk'd, Of anguish and difmay, Thro' what diffreffes they had walk'd, Before they found the way.

- 5 Ah! then I thought my hopes were vain, For 1 had liv'd at eafe;
  - I wish'd for all my fears again, To make me more like thefe,

- 8 Again my Saviour brought me aid, And when he fet me free,
  - " Trust simply on my word, he faid, And leave the reft to me."

XXXVI. Prayer an fwered by Croffes.

- I I ask'd the Lord, that I might grow In faith, and love, and ev'ry grace; Might more of his falvation know And feek more earneftly his face.
- 2 'Twas he who taught me thus to pray, And he, I truft, has answer'd pray'r; But it has been in fuch a way, As almost drove me to despair.
- 3 I hop'd that in fome favour'd hour, At once he'd anfwer my request; And by his love's constraining pow'r, Subdue my fins, and give me reft.
- 4 Inftead of this, he made me feel The hidden evils of my heart; And let the angry pow'rs of hell Affault my foul in ev'ry part.
- 5 Yea more, with his own hand he feem'd Intent to aggravate my woe; Crofs'd all the fair defigns I fchem'd, Blafted my gourds, and laid me low.

V. DEDICATION and SURRENDER.
LIX. Old Things are paffed away.
LET worldly minds the world purfue, It has no charms for me; Once I admir'd its trifles too, But grace has fet me free.
2 Its pleafures now no longer pleafe, No more content afford; Far from my heart be joys like thefe, Now I have feen the Lord.

3 As

 Y 3 As by the light of op'ning day The ftars are all conceal'd; So earthly pleafures fade away, When Jefus is reveal'd.

- 4. Creatures no more divide my choice,
   I bid them all depart;
   His name, and love, and gracious voice,
   Have fix'd my roving heart.
- 5 Now, Lord, I would be thine alone, And wholly live to thee; But may 1 hope that thou wilt own A worthlefs worm like me?
- 6 Yes! tho' of finners I'm the worft, I cannot doubt thy will; For if thou hadft not lov'd me first, I had refus'd thee still *.

LX. The Power of Grace.

- I HAPPY the birth where grace prefides To form the future life!
  - In wifdom's paths the foul fhe guides, Remote from noife and ftrife.
- 2 Since I have known the Saviour's name, And what for me he bore ;

No more I toil for empty fame, I thirst for gold no more.

- 3 Plac'd by his hand in this retreat, I make his love my theme; And fee that all the world calls great Is but a waking dream.
- 4 Since he has rank'd my worthlefs name Amongst his favour'd few;

Let the mad world who fcoff at them, Revile and hate me too.

296 DEDICATION AND Book III.

5 O thou whofe voice the dead can raife, And foften hearts of ftone,

And teach the dumb to fing thy praife, This work is all thine own.

 6 Thy wond'ring faints rejoice to fee A wretch like me reftor'd;
 And point, and fay, "How chang'd is he, Who once defy'd the Lord!"

7 Grace bid me live, and taught my tongue To aim at notes divine; And grace accepts my feeble fong,

The glory, Lord, be thine!

LXI. C. My Soul thirfleth for God.

- I I Thirst, but not as once I did, The vain delights of earth to share; Thy wounds, Emmanuel, all forbid, That I should feek my pleasures there.
- 2 It was the fight of thy dear crofs, First wean'd my foul from earthly things; And taught me to efteem as drofs The mirth of fools and pomp of kings.
- 3 I want that grace that fprings from thee, That quickens all things where it flows, And makes a wretched thorn, like me, Bloom as the myrtle, or the rofe.
- 4 Dear fountain of delight unknown! No longer fink below the brim; But overflow, and pour me down A living, and life-giving ftream!
- 5 For fure, of all the plants that fhare The notice of thy Father's eye, None proves lefs grateful to his care, Or yields him meaner fruit than I.

LXII. C. Love constraining to Obedience.

 NO ftrength of nature can fuffice To ferve the Lord aright;
 And what fhe has, fhe mifapplies, For want of clearer light.

2 How long beneath the law I lay In bondage and diffrefs!

I toil'd the precept to obey, But toil'd without fuccefs.

3 Then, to abstain from outward fin, Was more than I could do; Now, if I feel its pow'r within, I feel I hate it too.

4 Then all my fervile works were done A righteouſneſs to raiſe; Now, freely choſen in the Son,

I freely choose his ways.

5 What fhall I do, was then the word, That I may worthier grow? What fhall I render to the Lord? Is my enquiry now.

6 To fee the law by Chrift fulfill'd, And hear his pard'ning voice, Changes a flave into a child *, And duty into choice.

SIN enflav'd me many years, And led me bound and blind; Till at length a thoufand fears, Came fwarming o'er my mind.

* Rom iii, 31.

Where,

Where, faid I in deep diffrefs, Will these finful pleasures end ? How shall I fecure my peace, And make the Lord my friend?

2 Friends and ministers faid much. The gofpel to enforce ;

But my blindness ftill was such, ' I chose a legal course :

Much I fafted, watch'd, and ftrove, Scarce would fhew my face abroad, Fear'd, almost, to fpeak or move, A ftranger ftill to God.

Thus afraid to truft his grace, Long time did I rebel;

Till, defpairing of my cafe. Down at his feet I fell: Then my flubborn heart he broke, And fubdu'd me to his fway; By a fimple word he fpoke,

" Thy fins are done away."

V LXIV. C. Hatred of Sin.

- I HOLY Lord God! I love thy truth, Nor dare thy least commandment flight; Yet pierc'd by fin, the ferpent's tooth, I mourn the anguish of the bite.
- 2 But tho' the poifon lurks within, Hope bids me still with patience wait; Till death shall fet me free from fin, Free from the only thing I hate.
- 3 Had I a throne above the reft, Where angels and archangels dwell; One fin, unflain, within my breaft, Would make that heav'n as dark as hell.

LXV. The Child *.

- I QUIET, Lord, my froward heart, Make me teachable and mild, Upright, fimple, free from art, Make me as a weaned child: From diftruft and envy free, Pleas'd with all that pleafes thee.
- 2 What thou fhalt to-day provide, Let me as a child receive ; What to-morrow may betide, Calmly to thy wifdom leave :

'Tis enough that thou wilt care, Why fhould I the burden bear ?

3 As a little child relies On a care beyond his own; Knows he's neither ftrong nor wife; Fears to ftir a ftep alone:

> Let me thus with thee abide, As my Father, Guard, and Guide.

4 Thus preferv'd from Satan's wiles, Safe from dangers, free from fears, May I live upon thy fmiles, Till the promis'd hour appears, When the fons of God fhall prove All their Father's boundlefs love.

- FIX my heart and eyes on thine ! What are other objects worth ! But to fee thy glory fhine, Is a heav'n begun on earth : Trifles can no longer move, Oh, I tread on all befide, When I feel my Saviour's love, And remember how he dy'd.
- 2 Now my fearch is at an end, Now my wifhes rove no more ! Thus my moments I would fpend, Love, and wonder, and adore : Jefus, fource of excellence ! All thy glorious love reveal ! Kingdoms fhall not bribe me hence, While this happiness I feel.
- 3 Take my heart, 'tis all thine own, To thy will my fpirit frame; Thou fhalt reign, and thou alone, Over all I have or am: If a foolifh thought fhall dare To rebel againft thy word, Slay it, Lord, and do not fpare, Let it feel thy Spirit's fword.
- 4 Making thus the Lord my choice, I have nothing more to choofe, But to liften to thy voice, And my will in thine to lofe: Thus, whatever may betide, I fhall fafe and happy be; Still content and fatisfy'd, Having all, in having thee.

LXVII. The Happy Debtor.

 TEN thousand talents once I ow'd, And nothing had to pay;
 But Jefus freed me from the load, And wash'd my debt away.

2 Yet fince the Lord forgave my fin, And blotted out my fcore, Much more indebted I have been, Than e'er I was before.

3 My guilt is cancell'd quite, I know, And fatisfaction made; But the vaft debt of love I owe Can never be repaid.

4 The love I owe for fin forgiv'n, For power to believe,

For prefent peace, and promis'd heav'n, No angel can conceive.

5 That love of thine, thou finner's Friend ! Witnefs thy bleeding heart ! My little all can ne'er extend

To pay a thousandth part.

6 Nay more, the poor returns I make 1 first from thee obtain *; And 'tis of grace, that they wilt take

And 'tis of grace, that thou wilt take Such poor returns again.

7 'Tis well —it fhall my glory be (Let who will boaft their ftore) In time and to eternity,

To owe thee more and more.

- 2 No fears he feels, he fees no foes, No conflict yet his faith employs, Nor has he learnt to whom he owes, The ftrength and peace his foul enjoys.
- But fin foon darts its cruel fting, And comforts finking day by day:
  What feem'd his own, a felf-fed fpring, Proves but a brook that glides away.

6 'Tis joy enough, my All in All, At thy dear feet to he;

Thou wilt not let me lower fall, And none can higher fly.

And now he pleading stands 4 For us, before the throne; And anfwers all the Law's demands. With what himfelf hath done. He fees us, willing flaves To fin and Satan's pow'r; But, with an outftretch'd arm, he faves, In his appointed hour. The Holy Ghoft he fends 6 Our flubborn fouls to move; To make his enemies his friends. And conquer them by love. The love of fin departs, The life of grace takes place, Soon as his voice invites our hearts To rife and feek his face. The world and Satan rage, 8 But he their pow'r controuls; - His wildom, love, and truth, engage Protection for our fouls. Tho' prefs'd, we will not yield, But shall prevail at length, For JESUS is our fun and fhield, Our righteoufness and strength. Affur'd that CHRIST our king, -10 Will put our foes to flight; We, on the field of battle, fing

Hymn 88.

PRAISE.

LXXXVIII. Man by Nature, Grace, and Glory.

- 1 LORD, what is man! extremes how wide, In this mysterious nature join! The flesh, to worms and dust ally'd, The foul, immortal and divine!
- 2 Divine at first, a holy flame Kindled by the Almighty's breath; Till, stain'd by fin, it soon became The feat of darkness, strife, and death.
- 3 But Jefus, Oh! amazing grace! Affum'd our nature as his own, Obey'd and fuffer'd in our place, Then took it with him to his throne.
- 4 Now what is man, when grace reveals The virtue of a Saviour's blood ? Again a life divine he feels, Defpifes earth, and walks with God.
- 5 And what in yonder realms above, Is ranfom'd man ordain'd to be ? With honour, holinefs, and love, No feraph more adorn'd than he.
- 6 Neareft the throne, and first in fong, Man shall his hallelujahs raife;
  While wond'ring angels round him throng, And swell the chorus of his praise.

The KITE; or, PRIDE must have a Falk.

My waking dreams are best conceal'd, Much folly, litle good they yield; But now and then I gain, when sleeping; A friendly hint, that's worth the keeping: Lately I dream'd of one who cry'a, "Beware of self, beware of pride; When you are prone to build a Babel, Recal to mind this little fable."

ONCE on a time a paper kite Was mounted to a wond'rous height, Where, giddy with its elevation, It thus exprefs'd felf-admiration: "See how yon crowds of gazing people Admire my flight above the fteeple; How would they wonder if they knew All that a kite like me can do? Were I but free, I'd take a flight, And pierce the clouds beyond their fight, But, ah ! like a poor pris'ner bound, My ftring confines me near the ground : I'd brave the eagle's tow'ring wing Might I but fly without a ftring."

It tugg'd and pull'd, while thus it fpoke. To break the ftring—at laft it broke. Depriv'd at once of all its ftay In vain it try'd to foar away; Unable its own weight to bear, It flutter'd downward thro' the air; Unable its own courfe to guide, The winds foon plung'd it in the tide. Ah! foolifh kite, thou hadft no wing, How couldft thou fly without a ftring?

My heart reply'd, "O Lord, I fee How much this kite refembles me!

Forgetful

Forgetful that by thee I fland, Impatient of thy ruling hand; How oft I've wish'd to break the lines 'Thy wission for my lot affigns? How oft indulg'd a vain defire For fomething more, or fomething higher? And, but for grace and love divine, A fall thus dreadful had been mine."

A Thought on the Sea-Shore.

IN ev'ry object here I fee

Something, O Lord, that leads to thee; Firm as the rocks thy promife flands,

Thy mercies countlefs as the fands,.

Thy love a fea immenfely wide,

Thy grace an ever flowing tide.

2 In ev'ry object here I fee Something, my heart, that points at thee;. Hard as the rocks that bound the ftrand, Unfruitful as the barren fand,.

Deep and deceitful as the ocean, And, like the tides, in conftant motion.

The Spider and Toad.

The

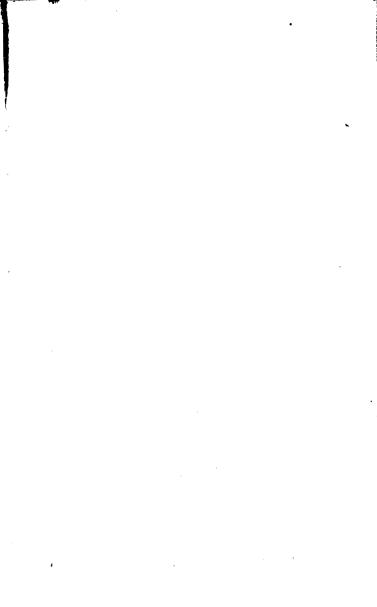

SOME author (no great matter who, Provided what he fays be true)
Relates he faw, with hoftile rage,
A fpider and a toad engage:
For tho' with poifon both are ftor'd,
Each by the other is abhorr'd,
It feems as if their common venom Provok'd an enmity between 'em. Implacable, malicious, cruel, Like modern hero in a duel,
The fpider darted on his foe, Infixing death at every blow.

The toad, by ready inftinet taught, An antidote, when wounded, fought From the herb Plantain, growing near, Well known to toads its virtues rare, The fpider's poifon to repel; It cropp'd the leaf, and foon was well. - This remedy it often try'd, And all the spider's rage defy'd. The perfon who the contest view'd, While yet the battle doubtful ftood. Remov'd the healing plant away-And thus the fpider gain'd the day: For when the toad return'd once more Wounded, as it had done before, To feek relief and found it not, It fwell'd and dy'd upon the fpot.

In ev'ry circumstance but one (Could that hold too, I were undone) No glafs can reprefent my face More justly than this tale my cafe. The toad's an emblem of my heart, And Satan acts the fpider's part. Envenom'd by this poifon, I Am often at the point to die; But he who hung upon the tree, From guilt and woe to fet me free, Is like the Plantain leaf to me. To him my wounded foul repairs, He knows my pain, and hears my prayers; From him I virtue draw by faith, Which faves me from the jaws of death: From him fresh life and strength I gain. And Satan fpends his rage in vain. No fecret arts or open force, Can rob me of this fure refource, Though banish'd to some distant land, My med'cine would be still at hand; Though

Though foolifh men its worth deny, Experience gives them all the lie; Though Deifts aand Socinians join, Jefus still lives, and still is mine. 'Tis here the happy diff'rence lies, My Saviour reigns above the fkies, Yet to my foul is always near, For he is God, and ev'ry where. His blood a fovereign balm is found For ev'ry grief and ev'ry wound; And fooner all the hills shall flee And hide themfelves beneath the fea; Or ocean, flarting from its bed, Rush o'er the cloud-topt mountain's head; The fun, exhausted of its light, Become the fcource of endlefs night; And ruin fpread from pole to pole, Than Jefus fail the tempted foul.
